

Carlene Jamerson
Senior Vice President
Chief Clinical Officer

Carlene Jamerson is senior vice president and chief clinical officer of Adventist Health System. She provides assistance and mentorship to chief nursing officers (CNOs) throughout the organization, and is working to establish a clinical leadership program and streamline the clinical patient care process through the new electronic medical record application.

Jamerson has more than 25 years of nursing and administrative experience. Most recently, she served as president and CEO for Gordon Hospital. Previously, she was chief nursing officer and skilled nursing administrator for Parkridge Medical Center, Valley Psychiatric Hospital and Skilled Nursing Facility.

Jamerson has a bachelor's degree in nursing and her master of science in administration. She has the distinction of being selected as the first Nursing Alumnus of the Year by Southern Adventist University, and is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE).