

Lewis A. Seifert
Senior Vice President, Finance
Senior Finance Officer, Florida Hospital

Lewis Seifert is senior vice president of finance for Adventist Health System and senior finance officer for Florida Hospital. In this role, he provides administrative oversight to the hospital CFOs, and chairs or is a member of the board finance committees of several AHS facilities.

Seifert also provides leadership to the revenue cycle departments at Adventist Health System, including patient financial services, case management, health information management and charge description master support.

Seifert had an extensive history of financial leadership in health care in Central Florida before joining Florida Hospital in 2000, including experience as the chief financial officer for Winter Park Memorial Hospital and the Central Florida Division of HCA.