

David L. Huffman
Vice President, Finance

David Huffman is vice president of finance for Adventist Health System. He is responsible for the Corporate Reimbursement, Internal Audit, Accounts Receivable Securitization and Uniform Account Reconciliation Departments. In addition, he is responsible for the coordination of the annual external audit, financial reporting as well as accounting issues relating to new transactions and new accounting pronouncements.

Before joining AHS Corporate, he spent over 14 years with KPMG, where he specialized in healthcare accounting and auditing.

Huffman received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration with an accounting emphasis from Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska. He is a certified public accountant.