

Gary C. Skilton
Vice President, Treasury Operations

Gary Skilton is vice president of treasury operations for Adventist Health System. He has formerly served as senior vice president and chief financial officer of Adventist Living Centers in Warrenville, Illinois, vice president/treasurer of Adventist Health System/North and Adventist Health System/NEMA, and director of corporate accounting and director of tax and internal audit for Warner Electric Brake and Clutch Company, Inc. in South Beloit, Illinois. In addition, he worked for five years in public accounting.

Skilton has a master's degree in management with concentrations in finance, marketing, business policy and international business from Northwestern University and a bachelor's degree in business administration with an accounting emphasis from Andrews University. He is a certified public accountant, a certified management accountant and a certified treasury professional. He is a member of the Association of Financial Professionals, the Institute of Management Accountants, the Healthcare Financial Management Association, and Financial Executives International.