

Amy L. Zbaraschuk

Vice President/Controller, Finance

Amy Zbaraschuk serves as the vice president and corporate controller for Adventist Health System. Previously, she served as director of accounting and director of finance. Zbaraschuk is a graduate of the Florida Hospital Financial Management Program where she served as a resident before joining the corporate office.

Zbaraschuk received her master's degree in business administration from the University of Central Florida and her bachelor's degree in accounting from Andrews University.