

David W. Evans
Chief Financial Officer, AHS-IS

David Evans is chief financial officer for AHS Information Services.

Evans has 15 years experience with Adventist Health System. Prior to his AHS-IS appointment in 2002, Evans served as vice president and chief financial officer for Tennessee Christian Medical Center, and as regional controller for the multi-state division of Adventist Health System. Evans also held several financial leadership positions at Paracelsus Healthcare Corporation over a 10 year period, and worked in finance and operations for an air charter company for 3 years.

Evans received his bachelor of science degree in accounting and computer science from Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, TN.