

Billie Kennedy-Hutchinson

Vice President, Customer Service and Physician Systems

---

Billie Kennedy-Hutchinson is vice president of customer service and physician systems for AHS Information Services. Prior to joining AHS-IS, Kennedy-Hutchinson served as the information technology director for Duke Raleigh Hospital, a community hospital affiliate of Duke University Health System. She has extensive experience in healthcare information systems, accounts receivable and revenue cycle management.

Kennedy-Hutchinson received her bachelor of science in industrial technology from East Carolina University, her master's degree in business administration from Campbell University in Bules Creek, NC., and a post graduate certificate in healthcare administration from East Carolina University.

She is a Certified Professional in Health Information Management Systems (CPHIMS), as well as an active member of the Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society (HIMSS).